

Johnson Creek School District Talented and Gifted Nomination Form and Process

This nomination form requests that this child be screened for gifted and talented services. Professional educators, parents, self, or community members may submit nominations. Candidates will be screened for giftedness in the following areas:

- Intellectual-Several years beyond peers in cognitive ability
- Academically Able- Capable of making outstanding progress in one or more of the disciplines taught in school
- Artistic- Demonstrates unusual adeptness or skill in the field of drama, music, dance and/or visual arts
- Leadership- Ability to convince people to act or not act in specific ways
- Creativity- Characterized by originality of thought, human behavior and product

Included with this notice is a checklist of characteristics for areas of giftedness from the National Association for Gifted Children (NAGC). Nominators are asked to complete the checklist for the child being nominated. Note that this is a partial list of characteristics that gifted children may possess. No gifted child will possess all of these characteristics.

This form will be forwarded to the Talented and Gifted Coordinator for consideration in identifying students with exceptional needs. Submitting this form does not lead to automatic identification of student as part of the talent pool or as “talented and gifted”.

If you are the parent/guardian of the child that this form describes, you will be contacted as soon as staff has the opportunity to review what you have shared to consider test, performance, and supporting data, and to observe your child in several settings.

Please use the checklist attached to this page to support your nomination. Thank you for taking the time to advocate for this child. Please return this form, along with any materials you wish to include to:

Kris Blakeley, Director of Pupil Services/Elementary Principal
